Disqualification of Purported Nomination by BT Brands, Inc.

(Indianapolis, Indiana) – June 27, 2023 - Noble Roman's, Inc. (OTCQB: NROM) (the "Company"), the Indianapolis based franchisor and licensor of Noble Roman's Pizza and Noble Roman's Craft Pizza & Pub, today issued a press release regarding an important update for its upcoming annual meeting of shareholders of the Company to be held on July 6, 2023.

The Company has disqualified the purported nomination by BT Brands, Inc. ("BTB") of Gary Copperud for election to the Company's Board of Directors at the annual meeting. BTB purported to nominate Mr. Copperud for election. The Company recently determined, and has notified BTB, that BTB failed to comply with the requirements of the Company's by-laws for nominations of director candidates. In particular, according to the records maintained by the Company's transfer agent, BTB was not a shareholder of record of the Company's common stock at the date it submitted its notice of intent to nominate Mr. Copperud or on the record date for shareholders entitled to vote at the meeting. Such failures constitute separate grounds for disqualification of BTB's purported nomination under the Company's by-laws. Accordingly, BTB may not nominate Mr. Copperud at the annual meeting, and in accordance with the Company's by-laws, the Company will disregard all votes purported to be cast in favor of Mr. Copperud, whether on the WHITE proxy card distributed by the Company, or on the BLUE proxy card distributed by BTB.

Shareholders may still return a proxy card voting in favor of A. Scott Mobley. If a shareholder has returned a proxy card in favor of Mr. Copperud, the shareholder can revoke it at any time before the meeting by delivering to the Company another proxy bearing a later date, by submitting written notice of the revocation to the Company's corporate secretary, or by personally appearing at the annual meeting and casting a contrary vote.

The statements contained above concerning the company's future revenues, profitability, financial resources, market demand and product development are forward-looking statements (as such term is defined in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995) relating to the company that are based on the beliefs of the management of the company, as well as assumptions and estimates made by and information currently available to the company's management. The company's actual results in the future may differ materially from those indicated by the forward-looking statements due to risks and uncertainties that exist in the company's operations and business environment, including, but not limited to the continuing effects of the COVID-19 pandemic and its aftermath, competitive factors and pricing and cost pressures, non-renewal of franchise agreements, shifts in market demand, the success of franchise programs, including the Noble Roman's Craft Pizza & Pub format and the ability to convert the sales pipeline into sold units, the company's ability to successfully operate an increased number of company-owned restaurants, the outcome of the election of directors at the company's 2023 annual meeting of shareholders (as discussed under "Part II-Other Information" in Form 10-Q filed with SEC on May 10, 2023), general economic conditions, changes in demand for the company's products or franchises, the company's ability to service its loans and refinance its debt under suitable terms, the acceptance of the amended federal Form 941 returns relating to the ERTC, the impact of franchise regulation, the success or failure of individual franchisees and inflation and other changes in prices or supplies of food ingredients and labor as well as the factors discussed under “Risk Factors” contained in this company’s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2022. Should one or more of these risks or uncertainties materialize, or should underlying assumptions or estimates prove incorrect, actual results may vary materially from those described herein as anticipated, believed, estimated, expected or intended.
